

OPI Indian Education Lesson Evaluation: Classroom Application and Learning Objectives

Name of Reviewer	Title of lesson	Author of Lesson

All essential lesson components are identified:

<input type="checkbox"/> content area	<input type="checkbox"/> grade level	<input type="checkbox"/> unit summary
<input type="checkbox"/> time requirements	<input type="checkbox"/> state standards	<input type="checkbox"/> student learning targets
<input type="checkbox"/> Essential Understandings	<input type="checkbox"/> complete resource citations.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

The learning activities effectively address Montana Content Standards.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

The lesson integrates Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Learning activities are aligned with stated objectives.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Assessment measures learning goals and stated objectives.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Any teacher in Montana would be able to use this lesson, regardless of location.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Sufficient background information and complete resource list included.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Resources have been evaluated for authenticity and appropriateness.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Copyright laws are observed when using, recommending or citing sources.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

Lesson Strengths:

For more resource guidance, visit Indian Education for All www.opi.mt.gov/programs/indianed

- View Evaluating American Indian Materials & Resources for the Classroom

OPI Indian Education Lesson Evaluation: Classroom Application and Learning Objectives

Recommended Changes

change recommended in this area:	describe recommendation. Note whether this change is Optional or Required for acceptance.	O/R accurate and authentic creditable source tribally specific/ Montana tribes culturally appropriate language developed by teachers and educators Montana Content Standards Essential Understandings learning activities aligned with objectives assessment measures learning goals/objectives usable regardless of teacher's location background information, complete resource list authenticity and appropriateness Copyright observed for all sources essential lesson components

Other Comments:

I would recommend this lesson.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

